Construction Recruitment Day

You could work on the largest building project in Central London. Tens of thousands of workers are needed to build Nine Elms and we're looking for a range of trades, levels and experience.

Come to our Construction Recruitment Day on Tuesday 17 June 2014, 12 noon to 7pm at Lambeth College, Vauxhall Centre, Wandsworth Road SW8 2JY

10678 (5.14)

Whether you're working, returning to work or starting your career in construction we want to hear from you. Lambeth Working will have a large number of construction jobs available for local people at Nine Elms and developments across the borough.

Please bring with you proof of address, any tickets or cards you currently hold and, if available, a CV.
